

Course Description:

Project Management Fundamentals

This course will explore key Project Management methods that organizational leaders need to successfully complete projects, lead teams, and implement change. Participants learn methods for keeping projects organized and on schedule, and how to work effectively independently or as part of a project team.

Course Objectives:

- Project Successes and Project Failures
- How to create an effective project plan, and monitor and assess project progress
- Project leadership and project team development strategies
- Planning, Organizing, Implementing and Controlling the Project
- Project Presentation Methods and Techniques